Women and the Word  Church of the Resurrection will host a three-week series of women’s preaching on Mondays, October 29, November 5 and 12. Women and the Word offers women the opportunity to preach the Sunday Scriptures, and also allows listeners to benefit from the unique perspective women bring to the preaching enterprise. The preaching will take place in the context of a Liturgy of the Word and will focus on the scriptures for the coming Sunday.

Our preachers for this series are Terry Battaglia on October 29; Dorothy Valerian on November 5 and Lisa Frey on November 12.

You are welcome to attend one or all of the sessions. For more information, contact Lisa Frey at ebfrey@churchofresurrection.org or 440-248-0980 x 24.

“Christ Our Hope” - An Evening Of Prayer  Join us for a special evening of prayer in the style of Taizé on Monday, October 15th from 7-8pm. Within our time of Scripture and reflection there will be an opportunity to name the hurts of our world and Church and offer them up in prayer and song to Christ our Hope.
Our Fair Trade Boutique is just around the corner. Our first boutique was in 2004 and every other year since then we have welcomed fair trade vendors to our parish to educate us on the principles of equitable global trade and to delight us with handcrafts, food products and fashions from around the world.

Your volunteer support is essential to a successful boutique – as assistants to the vendors, help in preparing and serving refreshments, and muscle power to set up (Friday late afternoon and evening) and tear down (Sunday afternoon) tables and displays. Students needing service hours – this is a great opportunity! Contact Lisa at ebfrey@churchofresurrection.org for details.
We commit ourselves to serve others and reach out to the poor in response to their needs. Our work for justice extends to advocating with integrity for positive change in society and the Church.

Robert Feduccia
Speaker
Retreat Leader
Evangelist

Evening for All Liturgical Ministers
Tuesday, October 23, 2018
Church of the Resurrection, Solon
7:00—9:00 PM

Robert began his ministry career immediately after high school when he served on the National Evangelization Team (N.E.T.), a retreat ministry for high school and middle school youth. Always feeling a ministerial call, he entered St. Meinrad College Seminary for his home diocese of Jackson, MS. After graduating from St. Meinrad, he continued his graduate studies in theology at the Catholic University of America. Under the mentorship of the Benedictine monks of St. Meinrad, Robert learned the depth of contemplative prayer and absorbed the heart of the Church. During his time at Catholic University, the academic and scholarly rigor formed his intellect and he absorbed the mind of the Church.

He discerned that he was called to the sacrament of Matrimony rather than to Holy Orders and in 1994 he and wife were married. Still feeling a call to ministry, Robert served the Church as a parish youth minister and started a dynamic outreach to teens. He then returned to his alma mater, Saint Meinrad, as a staff member. The staff of Saint Meinrad and he pursued and received a $1.2 million grant from the Lilly Endowment, Inc. to launch the Youth Liturgical Leadership Program with One Bread, One Cup as the flagship program. These week-long conferences form teenage leaders in liturgical catechesis, ministerial skills, and in liturgical spirituality. One Bread, One Cup is still going strong after its founding in 2000.

After his time with One Bread, One Cup, Robert served as a development editor for St. Mary’s Press and then became the general manager for Spirit & Song, the contemporary music division of Oregon Catholic Press. During these years, Robert’s national reputation as a speaker, retreat leader, and writer began to grow.

He has taught theology to deacon candidates in dioceses around the country. He has been the keynote speaker at numerous diocesan conferences and is recognized as an expert in the New Evangelization having written the evangelization document for the National Federation for Catholic Youth Ministry. He has been a frequent contributor to OCP’s Today’s Liturgy and to the Center for Ministry Development’s Youth Ministry Access. He has spoken at Life Teen’s Catholic Youth Ministry Convention on several occasions and has served on the planning committees for the National Catholic Youth Conference and for the US bishops’ World Youth Day efforts.

Many of those from the Diocese of Cleveland who attended the NPM Convention in Baltimore this year were blessed to hear Robert’s Plenum address.

He lives in the Nashville area with Kathleen, his wife, and their two sons and two daughters.
Today, Sunday, October 7, 2018, we will celebrate the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi
Blessing of Animals 12:45PM.

We invite you to bring your leashed or caged pet to the East entrance of the Parish, where we will gather and process to the Font for the blessing. All participants will receive a memento of the occasion.

New Donors Always Welcome

Canonization of Archbishop Oscar Romero

Archbishop Romero’s life was dedicated to the poor of El Salvador where he was martyred while celebrating Mass in 1980. He was beatified in El Salvador on May 23, 2015 by Pope Francis. His canonization will take place in the Vatican on October 14, 2018. Some representatives from our Diocesan community are planning to attend the canonization. The Church of the Diocese of Cleveland and The Church of El Salvador have been very closely united since sisters, lay missionaries and priests from Cleveland began ministering with the people of El Salvador in 1964. Many of our missionaries have beautiful memories of Archbishop Romero, a friend to many of them. Ursuline Sister Dorothy Kazel and lay missioner Jean Donovan were present for the Archbishop’s funeral; they lost their lives as martyrs just months later. To commemorate this very significant event, the life and ministry of Bishop Romero and the faith of the people of El Salvador, Bishop Nelson Perez will celebrate Mass at 5:30 p.m. in the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist on the day of canonization, October 14, 2018. All are invited to attend.

Matthew 6:34

Women of the parish enjoy an afternoon of reflection!

As human beings worry is often part of our makeup. As women we often worry about our families, our homes and our jobs—the list can be endless. All of this can be amplified by the holidays; family gatherings, entertaining and all of the ‘extra’ things that must be done.

This year as you are doing so much for others, do something for yourself. Mark your calendars and plan to join us for an afternoon of reflection on Saturday, November 17th from noon until 3. Enjoy a delicious lunch (that you do not have to prepare), be inspired by the wonderful words of Mary Lou Beers and spend some time tapping into your creative side with a take home art project, all focusing on the theme of learning not to worry (something we can all use).

Cost for the afternoon $25.00 including lunch, speaker and all the supplies needed for painting for the art project. Please fill out this application by Wednesday, November 7th.

Each year as part of our religious education program we choose an organization to be involved with as part of our service component. This year we have chosen Rainbow Babies and Childrens Hospital. We have a number of events planned throughout the year to help with their mission of treating children in our ‘own back yard’ Our first project is called CHANGE MAKERS. Each students will do chores to fill their mason jar with money to be donated at the end of the month. But anyone can be a part of this project; just fill an empty jar with your loose change, bring it to church at the end of October and we will deliver it to Rainbow.
